KFC MOVES TOWARD MORE SUSTAINABLE PACKAGING

We are pleased to see that KFC is also adopting packaging bags equipped with self-destruct technology in its packaging applications.

This marks an important step in the ongoing transition toward more sustainable food service packaging at scale.

We look forward to supporting more brands in making sustainability practical, scalable, and meaningful through innovative packaging solutions.

A MILESTONE IN SUSTAINABLE INNOVATION

terrapaq™ is proud to receive the Polymateria Partnership Excellence Award, a meaningful recognition of our commitment to sustainable innovation and responsible packaging solutions.

With the continued support from Polymateria, we remain dedicated to developing effective biodegradable packaging and advancing a more sustainable future.

NEW PRODUCTS terrastirrer

Our product family just got bigger! terrapaq™ is proud to introduce terrastirrer, a smarter and more sustainable alternative to conventional plastic stirrers.

A practical 3-hole stirrer designed for cafés and food service businesses, suitable for coffee, tea, and other beverages while supporting more sustainable daily operations.
